

2018 MARC VIVIEN FOE AWARD

CONTEST RULES

Article 1. Organizer

FRANCE MEDIAS MONDE, a French société anonyme (public limited company) with capital of 5,347,560 euros, identified in the Nanterre Trade Registry under number B 501 524 029, with its registered office at Issy-les-Moulineaux (92130) - 80, rue Camille Desmoulins - France, the parent company of RADIO FRANCE INTERNATIONALE (RFI) and FRANCE 24, represented by Victor Rocaries, Chief Operating Officer, (hereinafter referred to as "the Organizing Company"), is organizing a free contest, with no obligation to purchase, from April 9 to May 4, 2018, (hereinafter referred to as "the Contest"), in which participants must find, in the right order, the three African footballers in France's Ligue 1 who will be voted best players for 2018 by a jury of sports journalists at RFI and France 24 (hereinafter referred to as "the Jury") out of a total of 13 contenders.

Article 2. Eligibility

The contest is open to all physical persons of legal age (in their country of residence), hereinafter referred to as "the Participant(s)". Participants who are not of legal age in their country of residence are not authorized to take part.

Only one entry per person will be allowed throughout the Contest. Participants may only enter under their own name and on their own behalf and may under no circumstances enter on behalf of other participants.

Employees of the Organizing Company and their immediate family members are not eligible to participate in the Contest.

Participants vote on the dedicated Contest website which can be accessed via the following address: www.prixmarcvivienfoe.com. The aim of the Contest is to find the winning trio nominated by the Jury. This list will be announced in a press release.

Article 3. Contest dates

The Contest will run from April 9, 2018 to May 4, 2018.

Article 4. Winner selection and prize

The Contest will close on May 4, 2018 at 11.59pm. Ten (10) winners will be selected by a random drawing carried out by the Jury using random draw software. The Organizing Company will then notify each winner by email and ask for their postal address. The winners will receive a prize, a collectible Marc Vivien Foé Award football shirt, that will be sent to their home address by post. If the email notification remains unanswered after two reminders, the Organizing Company reserves the right to not post the prize.

The Organizing Company reserves the right to replace all or part of the prize with a prize that is at least equivalent in value. The Organizing Company's responsibility is strictly limited to providing the prize that has been effectively and legitimately won by the winners. It cannot be held liable, contractually or otherwise, for the way the prize is used.

Under no circumstances will the winners be able to demand financial compensation as a substitute for the prizes.

Once they have been selected, the winners will be notified by email. The prizes will be sent to each of the ten winners by post. The prize can be neither returned, nor exchanged. The delivery by post of the prize will be paid for by the Organizing Company.

Article 5. Personal data: authorization and processing

France Médias Monde complies with the provisions of French Act n°78-17 of January 6, 1978 on data processing, data files and individual liberties and of European Regulation n° 2016/679 of April 27, 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data.

The information collected for the purposes of this Contest will be used by France Médias Monde and the entities of the Group. France Médias Monde will be responsible for the related data processing. Under no circumstances will the data be collected and/or sold to third parties without the prior consent of the data subjects.

The personal data gathered for the purposes of this Contest is collected on the basis of consent and will be processed automatically. This processing involves the collection, organization, recording, storage, extraction, consultation, use, communication for transmission, circulation or other forms of distribution, blocking, deletion or destruction of data and is carried out for the purposes of the organization of the Contest and notably, in order to manage the participant selection procedure and the allocation and delivery of the prizes.

The following personal data will be collected for this Contest:

- Identity: last name and first name
- Postal address
- Email address

The personal data collected for the purposes of this Contest will be stored for the entire duration of the Contest and for one month after the prize has been allocated to the winners, in accordance with Article 5 of these Rules.

The entry form data and the data used to check and ensure compliance with entry conditions must be provided in order to take part in this Contest.

If one of the compulsory fields in the entry form is not completed and/or if information requested to ensure compliance with entry conditions is not provided, we will be unable to process your request to participate in the Contest.

Participants may access, modify and dispute their personal data at any moment. They may exercise this right by sending a request to France Médias Monde's Data Protection Officer, either by post to: 80 rue Camille Desmoulins, 92130 Issy-les-Moulineaux, France, or by email to: dpo@francemm.com. All requests must include proof of identity.

Participants are also informed that they may assert their rights before the supervisory authority, namely the CNIL in France, with regard to the processing of their personal data by France Médias Monde, in its capacity as the entity responsible for the data processing.

Article 6. Disputes and responsibilities

In the event of a claim, only a registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt will be admissible. No claims will be accepted beyond a period of one month after the Contest closing date. The Organizing Company will independently settle any dispute concerning the Contest and its rules, in agreement with the bailiff's office of its choice. No response will be made to requests made by telephone or in writing regarding the interpretation or application of these rules, of the mechanisms or of the conditions of the Contest.

The Organizing Company will not be liable, if a case of force majeure or events beyond its control cause it to cancel, shorten, prolong, postpone or modify the conditions of this Contest. By entering the Contest, the Participant relieves the organizing company of its responsibility and exonerates it from any prejudice, loss or damage of any kind, including losses (loss of profit and/or indirect losses) sustained as a result of this Contest or of the Prize won, or in any way linked to them. The Organizing Company will not be held liable for any loss, lateness, damage or destruction incurred during the dispatching of the prize.

The Organizing Company reserves the right to modify the articles of these rules, notably the Contest rules and the prize awarded.

Article 7. Miscellaneous

The regulations can be sent free of charge to any person who makes a request for them in writing to the following address: France Médias Monde – Service Juridique, 80 rue Camille Desmoulins, 92130 Issy les Moulineaux, France.

Entry in the Contest implies full and unreserved acceptance by the Participants of all the provisions contained in these rules.

The rules are subject to French regulations. Only French law is applicable. Any litigation that cannot be resolved amicably shall be referred to the High Court of Nanterre (France).
